

CAPTAIN EMIL E. SPILLMAN

Supply Corps, United States Navy

Executive Officer Fleet and Industrial Supply Center Norfolk

Captain Emil E. Spillman, Supply Corps, United States Navy, assumed the duties of Comptroller for Commander, Navy Installations Command (CNIC) October 14, 2003. He was relieved by a Senior Executive Service (SES) civilian in October 2005. On January 30, 2006, he assumed the duties as supply program director at CNIC.

Captain Spillman, was born in Mobile, Alabama and raised in the northern suburbs of Atlanta, Georgia. He earned his bachelor of science degree in general management from Purdue University and a masters degree in business administration from Old Dominion University.

Commissioned through the Navy's Officer Candidate School at Newport, Rhode Island in 1983, Captain Spillman attended the Navy Supply Corps School and the Submarine Officer's Basic School before reporting on board USS Sam Rayburn, (SSBN 635) as supply officer. While aboard USS Sam Rayburn he achieved his initial warfare qualification. Additional afloat tours during his career have included USS Coral Sea (CV 43) as material officer, USS Theodore Roosevelt (CVN 71) as stock control officer, USS South Carolina (CGN 37) as supply officer and six weeks aboard USNS Comfort (T-AH 20) as assistant supply officer during operations off Haiti. He participated in Operation Desert Storm on board USS Theodore Roosevelt and achieved his second warfare designator aboard USS South Carolina.

Captain Spillman's shore tour assignments include assistant stock control officer and expediting branch officer at the Trident Refit Facility in Bangor, Washington; assistant to the comptroller and retail support officer at Command, Submarine Force U.S. Atlantic Fleet in Norfolk, Virginia; receiving officer and transportation officer at Defense Distribution Depot, Norfolk, Virginia; U.S. business financial manager at Naval Sea Systems Command in Arlington, Virginia, where he achieved qualifications in business financial management for the Defense Acquisition Workforce; and a tour as Commander, Defense Distribution Mapping Activity located in Richmond, Virginia.

Captain Spillman's personal decorations include the Navy Commendation medal with three Gold Stars, the Navy Meritorious Service Medal, and the Defense Meritorious Service Medal with Gold Star.